V. FACTS

6. It has become necessary to bring this suit due to the failure of Defendant The Lincoln National Life Insurance Company (hereinafter referred to as "Lincoln" or "The Lincoln") to honor its obligations to Plaintiff. Plaintiff is a beneficiary of a policy for long-term disability benefits (hereinafter "The Policy") underwritten by Lincoln. Plaintiff suffers from functional limitations resulting from his degenerative disc disease, migraine headaches, ocular migraines, and his combined symptomology. Lincoln is legally obligated to refrain from misrepresenting the terms of The Policy, as well as to pay Plaintiff benefits pursuant to The Policy's terms.

7. As The Policy's insurer, administrator, and sales agents, Lincoln agreed to undertake The Policy's obligations and to refrain from misrepresenting the terms of The Policy. Lincoln breached said obligations to Plaintiff when Lincoln denied Plaintiff's claim for disability benefits. Plaintiff became disabled on or about September 17, 2010. Plaintiff thereafter filed an application for long term disability ("LTD") benefits with Lincoln.

8. Lincoln, however, denied Plaintiff's claim for by way of correspondence dated December 7, 2012, and informed Plaintiff that should he desire to, he needed to appeal Lincoln's decision within 180 days. Though his claim was not governed by The Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"), in a good faith effort to resolve the situation, Plaintiff sent medical records and a brief to Lincoln on October 13, 2013 showing that he was entitled to long-term disability benefits under The Policy. Plaintiff made repeated telephone calls to Lincoln seeking the status of Lincoln's review and decision on his claim for long-term disability benefits under The Policy.

9. Plaintiff has attempted in good faith to appeal to Lincoln; however, Lincoln has refused to make payment on this claim under which its liability is clear. As such, Plaintiff initiates this action as Lincoln is responsible to pay Plaintiff benefits under The Policy and for further monetary damages due to Lincoln's misrepresentations and failure to follow Texas law.

VI. BREACH OF CONTRACT

10. Lincoln's conduct described above constitutes a breach of The Policy. The

096-276871-15

Policy is a contract as its existence arose from a bargained for exchange between Plaintiff and Lincoln. Lincoln has failed to perform in accordance with the terms of The Policy in that Plaintiff has incurred a covered loss which should have been compensated by Lincoln. Lincoln has failed to perform its obligations under the contract by failing to pay Plaintiff's properly submitted and payable claim. Said conduct constitutes a breach by Lincoln of the contract for long-term disability insurance, a contract entered into between Plaintiff and Lincoln for which Lincoln has now incurred further liability.

VII. BREACH OF DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

11. Lincoln, by and through its agents and administrators, breached its duty of good faith and fair dealing by: (1) denying and/or delaying payment of benefits to Plaintiff when Lincoln's liability was reasonably clear, and as (2) Lincoln knew or should have known that there was no reasonable basis for denying Plaintiff's claim for long-term disability benefits. Lincoln has thus failed to effectuate a prompt, fair, and equitable settlement of a claim with respect to which Lincoln's liability has remained consistently clear. As a proximate result of the breach of duty of good faith and fair dealing, Plaintiff suffered damages consisting of the loss of the benefit-of-the-bargain that he reasonably expected to be due under The Policy.

VIII. INSURANCE CODE AND DTPA VIOLATIONS

12. Due to the aforementioned acts and omissions, Lincoln has violated both the Texas Insurance Code and the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act sections and articles in the following ways:

- (a) Insurance Code Article § 541.051 by misrepresenting the terms or benefits and advantages of The Policy;

096-276871-15

- (b) Insurance Code Article § 541.052 by placing before the public materials containing untrue, deceptive, or misleading assertions, representations, or statements regarding The Policy;
- (c) Insurance Code Article § 541.060 by engaging in unfair settlement practices by (A) misrepresenting to Plaintiff a material fact or policy provision relating to the coverage at issue; (B) failing to attempt in good faith to effectuate a prompt, fair, and equitable settlement of a claim with respect to which Lincoln's liability has become reasonably clear; (C) failing to promptly provide to Plaintiff a reasonable explanation of the basis in The Policy, in relation to the facts or applicable law, for Lincoln's denial of Plaintiff's claim; (D) failing within a reasonable time to affirm or deny coverage of Plaintiff's claim; and (E) refusing to pay a claim without conducting a reasonable investigation with respect to the claim.

- (d) Insurance Code Article § 541.061 by misrepresenting The Policy by (A) making an untrue statement of material fact; (B) failing to state a material fact necessary to make other statements made not misleading, considering the circumstances under which the statements were made; (C) making a statement in such a manner as to mislead a reasonably prudent person to a false conclusion of a material fact; (D) making a material misstatement of law; and (E) failing to disclose other matters required by law to be disclosed.
- (e) Business and Commerce Code § 17.46(b)(5) by representing that services had characteristics, uses and benefits that they did not have;
- (f) Business and Commerce Code § 17.46(b)(12) by representing that an agreement conferred or involved rights, remedies or obligations which it did not have or involve; and
- (g) Business and Commerce Code § 17.46(b)(24) by failing to disclose information concerning services which was known at the time of the transaction where the failure to disclose such information was intended to induce Plaintiff into a transaction into which Plaintiff would not have entered had the information been disclosed.

IX. CAUSATION

13. The conduct described in this petition was a producing and proximate cause of damages to Plaintiff.

X. DECLARATORY RELIEF

14. Pleading further, Plaintiff would show he is entitled to declaratory relief, pursuant to Section 37 of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code. Specifically,

096-276871-15

Plaintiff would show that he is entitled to declaratory relief due to Lincoln's breach of its contractual obligations under the terms of The Policy. TEX. CIV. PRACT. & REM. CODE § 37.001.

15. The evidence at trial will show that Plaintiff submitted a timely and properly payable claim for LTD benefits to Lincoln. The evidence will show that Lincoln denied Plaintiff benefits which it contractually owes, because it claims that Plaintiff's condition does not meet The Policy's definition of "disabled".

16. The conduct of The Lincoln as described above creates uncertainty and insecurity with respect to Plaintiff's rights, status, and other legal relations with Lincoln. Therefore, Plaintiff requests the Court exercise its power afforded under § 37.001 et. seq. of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code and declare the specific rights and statuses of the parties herein. Specifically, Plaintiff requests this Court review the facts and attending circumstances and declare that he is disabled as that term is both commonly understood and as defined by the insurance contract made the basis of this suit.

XI. ATTORNEYS FEES

17. Plaintiff prays that the Court award costs and reasonable and necessary attorneys fees as are equitable and just under § 37.009 of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, § 38.001 of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, and Section 542 of the Texas Insurance Code.

XII. REQUEST FOR DISCLOSURE

18. Pursuant to Rule 194 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff requests that Lincoln disclose, within 50 days of the service of this request, the information or material described in Rule 194.2 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

Plaintiff's Original Petition

096-276871-15

XIII. JURY DEMAND

19. Plaintiff demands a jury trial and tenders the appropriate fee with this petition.

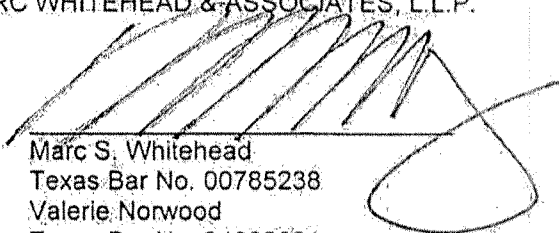

XIV. PRAYER

20. WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff respectfully prays that Lincoln be cited to appear herein, and that on final trial, Plaintiff recover his damages, including benefits under The Policy, statutory additional damages, treble damages, and attorneys fees and costs incurred in prosecuting this law suit, as well as prejudgment and post-judgment interest at the highest lawful rate, costs of court, and that this Court issue a judgment resolving the uncertainty and insecurity Lincoln has created, and for such further general relief as is warranted.
